By enrolling my children in the Christian Formation program, I affirm its goal of inspiring and guiding the personal and spiritual development of my children and youth within the context of the Catholic Faith. I understand that I am the primary educator of my children in their faith. I also understand that the Christian Formation program at Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish is made possible by the commitment of the participating families.

Therefore, I will commit to being present in at least one class session of each of my children and will give my time and talent to support my child's Catholic faith development in the following areas:
